

I am sure you will agree that it sends a bad message to the public to allow one conglomerate owned by one person to try to bend the election. If Sinclair is so intent upon running the story on Kerry then he should run the opposing view by Michael Moore. I appreciate your attention to this matter. It is obvious what this man is up to and this is another reason why deregulation of media can be a dangerous thing. All information in the hands of a few people is a threat. Reports are coming out now that CNN has reports, some which are not flattering to folks here in the US, it runs overseas but chooses to avoid here. This is not democracy or true journalism. I am saddened that we have come to a place where media either spins in their favor or is afraid to tell the truth. Fair and balanced needs to be just that.

Thanks for your input on this matter,
Respectfully,

Maria Williams
